

Student Honor Code

1. Students are expected to be honest in all academic work. A student's name on any academic exercise (theme, report, notebook, paper, examination) shall be regarded as assurance that the work is the result of the student's own thought and study.
2. Plagiarism is the unacknowledged appropriation of another's work, words, or ideas in any themes, outlines, papers, reports, or computer programs and is prohibited by the University. Students must follow the appropriate means of documentation if they wish to cite the works of another individual in their writing assignments.
3. Students shall not alter any official University record.
4. Students shall not furnish false or misleading information to University officials.
5. Students are responsible for making certain that their financial obligations to the University are met.
